Hunter Derby: Open to all horses. The order of go will be a blind draw that will be posted at the ring Saturday evening. Round One to be shown over a hunter classic type course. To include three high option jumps set at 3'5". To be judged on style & brilliance. Each horse will receive a numerical score. A minimum of 12 horses, if available, will return for round two, the Handy Hunter course. To include one required Handy option. To include a minimum of two high option jumps set at 3'5". To be judged on style, brilliance & handiness. In addition, a maximum of ten bonus points may be awarded for handiness of the second round. Also, one extra point will be added to the score for each high option jumped without major faults. Numeric round scores, bonus points & option jump points will be announced separately. Horses will be awarded ribbons for both round one & the handy round. Round one & two scores will be combined to determine Final Derby placing.

Gambler's Choice: Riders have 60 seconds to create their own course based on value of each jump. Jump height range .75M - 1.0M. Jump point value based on difficulty. Can only jump a jump twice. At 60 second whistle, entry must cross time. If tie, fastest time wins. No faults for refusals or knock downs. Jump must be at original set height for points to count. So if jump is knocked down, not a viable point obstacle. JOKER is +/- 200 points. After crossing time, rider has option of attempting the Joker of about 1.10 M. If clean, +200 points. If knock down or refusals, -100 points. Classic rules apply.
